

I am a... Book worm

Vision and Values

I have happy memories of reading a range of texts.

I enjoy reading for pleasure.

I feel safe reading aloud in class.

I feel valued when I express my ideas and opinions about the books I read.

I demonstrate British Values in reading when turn taking and by showing respect for other cultures.

Head

I know a range of strategies to help me decode unknown words.

I understand what I am reading.

I understand differences between fiction and non-fiction texts.

I know how to use a dictionary to help me find the definition of an unknown word.

I am aware, when reading aloud, how using expression in my voice can engage the listener.

Hand

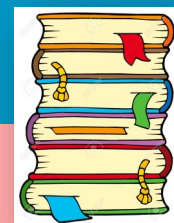

I am a fluent and confident reader.

I can talk to others about the books I enjoy reading and my favourite authors.

I can use VIPERS skills (Vocabulary, Inference, Prediction, Explanations, Retrieval and Sequence/Summarise to help me understand a text.

I can ask and answer questions about a text.

I am able to respond to characters and events.

Heart

I am proud to be a book worm.

I appreciate others who may not enjoy reading the same books as me.

I care about the books in my school and always look after them.

I want to share my enthusiasm and enjoyment for books with others.
